

Important Information

In order to treat you well in our doctor's office, it is important to consider the following: For your first appointment, please bring your medical findings, if your heart or your vessels have been examined earlier. You have not received a copy of the findings so far? Do not worry - ask your family doctor! He can hand you the findings over. Please always bring a current medication plan with you.

This is how you help us to treat you optimally.